Important Dates

Spring Break
March 22 Mon – March 26 Fri NO CLASSES

Parent Observations

I am thrilled that so many of our parents are staying and observing their children's classes. As the year has gone on many of you have made new friends and really enjoy visiting while your child dances, this is becoming a problem in some classes due to the noise level. Please keep in mind that being able to stay in your child's class and watch is a privilege that not all studios offer. Part of the reason you have enrolled your child in dance is because of the discipline and self confidence it gives children. If parents are chatting and trying to discipline their child from the sidelines it is not giving the respect to the instructors to trust them to discipline your child when needed, and sending mixed messages to students about class etiquette while trying to learn. We are fortunate enough to have a great waiting area for parents to visit and siblings to play without causing disruptions to the ongoing class.
